ABOUT SUIC

Shamsul Ulama Islamic Centre (SUIC), established in 2015, is an Islamic institution inspired by the legacy of Shamsul Ulama E.K. Aboobacker Musliyar. The Centre functions firmly within the framework of Ahlussunnathi wal Jama'ath and follows the guidance and scholarly tradition of Samastha Kerala Jam'iyyathul Ulama.

SUIC is dedicated to preserving sound Aqeedah, adherence to Shari'ah, and spiritual refinement through Tasawwuf, as taught by the classical scholars of Islam. At present, the Centre operates three institutions under the supervision of a committed local committee, focusing on Islamic education, moral development, and community service.

Rooted in tradition and committed to the future, SUIC continues to serve as a centre of authentic Islamic learning and leadership, upholding the values and vision of Samastha Kerala Jam'iyyathul Ulama for generations to come.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is centered on equipping every community member to navigate and live successfully in the current world while strictly adhering to the sublime teachings of Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him). This profound vision was powerfully and gigantically spread to modern Kerala by the exemplary life and work of the great Islamic scholar, Shamsul Ulama E. K. Aboobacker Musliar, whose name we proudly carry forward as our guiding light.

OUR VISION

Our vision is to become a leading Islamic educational and spiritual institution, empowering a generation rooted in spiritual values, national integrity, and democratic principles. We aim to nurture individuals with critical thinking and leadership skills through high-quality academics and a deep understanding of Islamic teachings, enabling them to lead fulfilling, successful lives and become ambassadors of peace who contribute positively to our diverse community and nation.
